

Staff Profile

Assistant Minister Sandy Wong

She was born in HK. She studied the BA(Hons) in Fashion and Textiles in Nottingham and had worked in HK and London. She came to know Jesus in year 1 of primary school, her faithful commitment in Christ led her to play an active role to serve a church when she lived in London. Subsequently, she answered God's calling and studied the Bachelor of Ministry course at Chinese Overseas Christian Mission (COCM) Bible College, where she met her husband, Pastor Gary Wong and they now have an adorable son. After graduated, she voluntarily served at MCCC and currently serves as Assistant Minister. Her passion is to share the gospel and to equip believers to be disciples of Jesus, and glorify God.
